

1. Meeting of the Portuguese Brain Action Group

6th November 2009

Lisbon, Portugal

Participants

Prof. António Freire Gonçalves – Former President of the Portuguese Neurological Society

Prof. João Malva – President of the Portuguese Society of Neurosciences

Dr. Pedro Varandas – Secretary of the Portuguese Society of Psychiatry

Prof. Augusto Goulão – President of the Portuguese Society of Neuroradiology

Dr. João Paulo Farias – Vice-President of the Portuguese Society of Neurosurgery

Dr. Pedro Cabral – Vice-President of the Portuguese Society of Neuropediatrics

Agenda:

1. Update on the previous developments of the Portuguese Brain Action Group
2. Discussion about changing the Portuguese Brain Action Group into Portuguese Brain Council (Conselho Português para o Cérebro - CPC)
3. Definition of the relationship between member associations, individual members and patient organizations.
4. Discussion of first draft of the statutes of the CPC
5. Conclusion and planning regarding the next meeting.